Office space is placed within smaller office building, from '60s, on a very busy street, across Botanical garden. Several bus lines goes through street, which makes it easy to reach from different part of town. Street belongs to third parking zone, and 5 minutes from building is public garage. Premises are on first floor, and building is well maintained, although with bit dated interior. It has reception area that continues onto large office. There are two more officier, two restrooms, kitchenette and terrace. Renovated, air conditioned, equipped with all necessary connections.
