Smaller one room apartment, on the sixth floor of a newer building in Belville. Nicely arranged building complex with a large number of parking spaces and underground garage space. In the building ground floor there are numerous shops and cafes. There is also a large, well known shopping center Delta city nerby, as well as a number of city traffic stops. The apartment has two side exposure and it is very bright. Living room exits to 4m<sup>2</sup> wide terrace. There is one larger room with the dinning room, separated kitchen and bathroom with bathtub. It is equipped with basic furniture and has air-conditioning. Regarding that it does not have a bedroom, the main room is separated into two parts: living room and bedroom, which are visually separated with a closet. The furniture is modern and of pastel colors and it allows future tenants to arrange the interior as they please.
