An excellent apartment on the first floor of a building in Belville complex in New Belgrade. Well-arranged and organized complex with lots of commercial facilities and large parking space. This part has good traffic connections with the rest of town, by public transport or a car. The apartment is two-oriented and of a good layout. Living room is with dining area, while the kitchen is detached and equipped with all necessary cabinets and appliances. It features two bedrooms; one with a double bed and the other, the smaller one with a single bed. The apartment is equipped with new furniture of modern design, air-conditioned. There is a parking space at disposal with additional charge. It is convenient for a business man, couple or a smaller family.
