Excellent apartment in the city center on the busy part of the town in the vicinity of the "London". Attractive and convenient for business people who wants to be in the center of the daily events, and in walking distance to plenty of amenities. The apartment is housed on the second floor of the building from the sixties with decent entrance. It is completely renovated with practical layout of the rooms. Open space is in the center of the apartment and consists of living room, dining room and kitchen. Separated bedroom with large bed and closet, and bathroom with shower are also part of the apartment, and terrace as well that can be reached from the living room overlooking the street. It is furnished in the modern and minimalist manner in bright colors and plenty of natural light. The apartment is suitable for single person or a couple.
