This is an apartment housed on a third floor of an pre-war, well maintained building. Building has unusually nice hallway, with large marble staircase and hand-holders made of wrought iron. Location is just behind Zeleni venac green market and public garage. There is one small lift in building, suitable for one person at the time. Premise itself is very bright, with ceilings 3,8 m high. There is only two rooms, one is very large, some 55 m² with one wall fully fitted with windows, overlooking the street. There is another, small room, large anteroom, basic kitchen and bathroom. Small terrace has view onto inner yard. Premise is suitable for peaceful business activity or residential purposes.
