An office space housed on the ground floor of a pre war, historical building. Location is placed close to London, pionirski park and national assembly. In the near vicinity are public garage and highway exit. The business premises are completely renovated and alone in that part of the entrance area. From long hallway one can enter all rooms: three offices which occupied 19m², 15m² and 9m², toilet, fully equipped kitchen and pantry. Every room is equipped with air-condition unit, several connection points for workstations and installations for video surveillance. The space is heated by central heating using electrical power. It has two entrances. Suitable for variety of business activities, but without large frequency of clients.
