A post-war villa with a separate courtyard on Dedinje, located on a busy street in immediate vicinity of the commercial area. The location is characterized by a pleasant, residential neighborhood. The building is located within less than five minute walk from the zone where all the necessary contents are available, such as different markets, banks and similar. The building is organized in three levels and has nice front and rear yard. Smaller part of the frontyard is occupied by a porch in front of the main entrance. Basement level holds a garage, as well as auxiliary rooms, laundry and boiler room. On the ground floor there is a large room that is double-oriented, a kitchen and a bathroom with a shower cabin. The living room and the kitchen exit to a terrace overlooking the backyard. On the first floor there are four rooms and a bathroom with bathtub. The house is empty and functionally serves as a representative office, while the very concept of the house is extremely suitable for various business activities. In the yard, it is possible to park four vehicles. Space demands certain investment and adaptations according to need.
