An attractive apartment with characteristic high ceilings, in street with large frequency of traffic in city center. Green-market Zeleni venac, main bus station and Sava jetty are in immediate vicinity. This part of the city is excellently connected with other parts of the city. The apartment is housed on the second floor of old, but well maintained building. It is two-side oriented with functional layout, where hallway connects all rooms. Rooms are mutually interconnected as well. Living room is furnished with corner sofa and commode, and has an exit to small terrace overlooking the street. Both bedrooms have king size bed and closet, while large kitchen is furnished with cupboards, closets and appliances. All rooms have air-condition unit which are used for cooling and heating. The apartment is completely renovated. Combination of modern and rustic elements make the interior warm and comfortable. Ideal for family life, couple or a single person.
