Small apartment with high ceilings, designed for business premises, situated in an excellent location, in Dorcol. It is housed on the first floor of a pre-war building. It consists of two connected offices. The smaller, entrance room has access to the toilet and within it there is a small kitchenette. Through this room, you can access another, larger room, oriented towards the street. The space is furnished with office furniture. It has heating per consumption, so the costs are low.
