Excellent family house in Višnjička banja at 200m from the main road, where a supermarket is and public transport stations. It is placed at 6.5 km from the city center, which is a 10-minute drive. The river and the promenade can be reached in five minutes, and the elevation on which the house is situated provide a beautiful view and cleaner air. In the surroundings there are other family houses, newer buildings and private lots in the greenery. The house is of new, quality construction for a comfortable family home. It consists of three levels. On the first level in the basement there is a small summer kitchen, the second level consists of a comfortable living room, kitchen, large terrace and four more rooms. The last level contains three bedrooms under slopes. The house is suitable for residential as well as for business purposes.
