Excellent, renovated apartment situated in a quiet location in the upper part of Banovo brdo. It is located in a very quiet, family environment, not far from the Kosutnjaka forest. An older building with several apartments. The apartment is housed on the high ground floor, oriented to the side, and towards the yard. It has been completely renovated and equipped with new furniture. It consists of a central kitchen with a dining room that has an exit to the terrace that extends along the entire length, to the left of the bedroom and to the right of the living room. The new bathroom with a shower cabin has access from the central part. It has been completely renovated and furnished with new, modern furniture in pastel colors and a minimalist style. Bright, airy and simple space in an extremely peaceful environment of one of the most beautiful settlements in Belgrade. Suitable for one person or a couple.
