An attractive and beautiful apartment, situated in the city center, close to Nemanjina Street and at few minutes walking distance from Manjež Park. Proximity to the highway and well-organized public transportation connect this location to all parts of the city. The apartment is housed on the third floor of a well-maintained building of older construction with an elevator. The space consists of a hallway, a living room, a bedroom, and a bathroom with a shower cabin. Completely renovated apartment, with two-side orientation, and two terraces. The living room is interconnected with the kitchen and the dining area in the form of a counter. The interior is modern, new, custom-made furniture and with excellently blended tones and lighting. Suitable for single person or couple.
