Very functional apartment on the second floor of a building from the late 80s on Cvetni trg. Excellent location in the heart of Vračar, and only at ten minutes walking distance from Trg Republike, and two from Trg Slavija. The central part of the apartment is occupied by the living room with access to the terrace and the dining room. Next to the dining room is a renovated kitchen with a pantry. There are two bedrooms with one bathroom in a separate bedroom block, a guest bedroom near the entrance to the apartment, and a toilet. The bathrooms have also been renovated. The apartment is equipped with a combination of new and used preserved, comfortable furniture. It is also equipped with all appliances, air-conditioned and has additional storage space in the hallway. There is a storage room for bicycles at the main entrance to the building. The building has its own courtyard with a children's playground, which is at disposal to the tenants. It is also possible to use the basement, with prior notice.
