A charming apartment in the center of the city, tucked away from the main street. A small pre-war building with two floors and an internal wooden staircase. The apartment is located on the second floor and the attic has been completely renovated. From the entrance there is a living room with a kitchen and a bathroom, which further leads into a room which occupies about 16 m<sup>2</sup>. There is a smaller terrace access from this room, and a larger one at the entrance. In front of the kitchen are wooden steps/ladders to the upstairs gallery, where there is a large sleeping mat. Walls with a combination of beams and bricks make this interior very interesting and suitable for a single person or a couple.
